The Mission

There was once a popular television program called "Mission Impossible". The introduction outlined the mission and asked "Mr. Phelps" if he would undertake it. The answer was always yes.

Today we have a mission. We believe in God and in Jesus as our Savior. He has provided a way for our forgiveness of sin and salvation. Many of us come from different backgrounds or generations, past or present. None of what God commands or expects has ever changed. We were not likely to have been considered bad people. We just had sin in our lives until we decided to follow Jesus.

We are now blessed in many ways. Hopefully, our attitudes and expectations have changed with the promise of eternal life. God has always loved mankind, even though He was disappointed with the lives of many shown with the examples in scripture.

Jesus gave us a mission. It is an important one found in Matthew 28. We are told to go into all the world and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is a big mission. We are told the fields are white for harvest.

Let each of us consider how we measure up in fulfilling this command. Live your life like Jesus showing kindness, love and telling others about God. We can do the same. Will you answer Yes?
